...for young girls enslaved in sex trafficking at truck stops.

...for the survivors trying to begin a new life.

...for the young girls forced into domestic servitude.

...for the men exploited in construction work.

...for the children enslaved in the cotton industry.

...for the mother who has no idea where her daughter is.

...for children sexually abused by their abductors.

...for the men who respect and protect abused women and girls.

...for the parents who have lost their children through trafficking.

...for the women enslaved in fake massage parlors.

...for the men who are sexually exploited and are afraid to tell.

...for bullied school children who seek acceptance and love.

...for the women and girls who are exploited in strip clubs.

...for the safe return of girls and boys who have been abducted.

...for perpetrators who profit from those who suffer.

...for the girls who are lured to leave their families thru the internet.

...for those enslaved that they will know the depths of freedom and belonging.

...for those advocating to end human trafficking.

...for the women and children who will be sold today.

...for the enslaved restaurant workers in our community.

...for those who survived for they will show us courage and hope.

...for the young men and women, who are enslaved in the garment industry.

...for the men who teach their sons to be respectful of women.

...for ourselves that we recognize trafficking in our midst.

...for abducted children forced to become soldiers.

...for caregivers and law enforcement.

...for those enslaved in agricultural fields, mines, and factories.

...for boys lured into gangs who become pimps.

...for the conversion of hearts of those who are traffickers.

...for the children exploited through pornography.

...for the victims’ strength and resilience.
WE PRAY...

1. ...for the women and children who will be sold today.
2. ...for the enslaved restaurant workers in our community.
3. ...for those who survived for they will show us courage and hope.
4. ...for the young men and women, who are enslaved in the garment industry.
5. ...for the men who teach their sons to be respectful of women.
6. ...for ourselves that we recognize trafficking in our midst.
7. ...for abducted children forced to become soldiers.
8. ...for caregivers and law enforcement.
9. ...for those enslaved in agricultural fields, mines, and factories.
10. ...for boys lured into gangs who become pimps.
11. ...for the conversion of hearts of those who are traffickers.
12. ...for the children exploited through pornography.
13. ...for the victims’ strength and resilience.
14. ...for young girls enslaved in sex trafficking at truck stops.
15. ...for the survivors trying to begin a new life.
16. ...for the young girls forced into domestic servitude.
17. ...for the men exploited in construction work.
18. ...for the children enslaved in the cotton industry.
19. ...for the mother who has no idea where her daughter is.
20. ...for children sexually abused by their abductors.
21. ...for the men who respect and protect abused women and girls.
22. ...for the parents who have lost their children through trafficking.
23. ...for the women enslaved in fake massage parlors.
24. ...for the men who are sexually exploited and are afraid to tell.
25. ...for bullied school children who seek acceptance and love.
26. ...for the women and girls who are exploited in strip clubs.
27. ...for the safe return of girls and boys who have been abducted.
28. ...for perpetrators who profit from those who suffer.
29. ...for the girls who are lured to leave their families thru the internet.
30. ...for those enslaved that they will know the depths of freedom and belonging.
31. ...for those advocating to end human trafficking.